

2016 Pride Week Essay Contest

- The contest is open to all students in the City of Dublin. Entry levels are grades K-1, 2-3, 4-5, 6-8, 9-12.
- The essay may be a maximum of 250 words for K-1 and Grade 2-3.
- The essay may be a maximum essay is 500 words for Grades 4-5, 6-8, and 9-12.
- The theme of the essay this year is "What does Energy Conservation mean to you?"
- The essay may be hand written or computer generated. Each essay must include the Full Name of the Student, School Name, Teacher Name and Grade.
- Essays must be turned into the school office by noon on Friday, April 29, 2016. The entries will be picked up by members of the GFWC Dublin/San Ramon Women's Club and taken for the judging process. Entries may also be delivered to City Hall by Thursday, April 28 by noon.
- Please call Valerie Barnes at 925-828-0231 for any additional information or at valeriebar7366@yahoo.com.

PRIZES

Classroom award of $200 will be presented to the class teacher of the Grand Prize Winner. (Funds to be spent at the teacher's discretion.)

All entrants will receive a participation certificate.

Grand Prize Winner will receive a $100 gift certificate.

1st Prize winner in each entry level will receive a $25 gift certificate.

2nd Prize winner in each entry level will receive a $15 gift certificate.

All Prize winners will be recognized at a Dublin City Council Meeting.

This contest is a project of the Dublin PRIDE Committee and the GFWC Dublin/San Ramon Women's Club.

2016 Pride Week Poster Contest

- The contest is open to all students in the City of Dublin. Entry levels are grades K-1, 2-3, 4-5, 6-8, 9-12.
- The theme of the PRIDE Week this year is "Energize with Dublin Pride."
- Any drawing or coloring medium may be used; strong colors are encouraged.
- Original drawings only: no pictures may be traced.
- ON THE BACK OF THE POSTER, PRINT YOUR FULL NAME, SCHOOL NAME, TEACHER NAME AND GRADE. Maximum poster size is 11"X17."
- Posters must be turned into the school office by noon on Friday, April 29, 2016. The entries will be picked up by members of the GFWC Dublin/San Ramon Women's Club and taken for the judging process. Entries may also be delivered to City Hall by Thursday, April 28, by noon.
- Please call Valerie Barnes at 925-828-0231 for any additional information or at valeriebar7366@yahoo.com.

PRIZES

Classroom award of $200 will be presented to the class teacher of the Grand Prize Winner. (Funds to be spent at the teacher's discretion.)

All entrants will receive a participation certificate.

Grand Prize Winner will receive a $100 gift certificate.

1st Prize winner in each entry level will receive a $25 gift certificate.

2nd Prize winner in each entry level will receive a $15 gift certificate.

All Prize winners will be recognized at a Dublin City Council Meeting.

This contest is a project of the Dublin PRIDE Committee and the GFWC Dublin/San Ramon Women's Club.